

Contemporary Endodontic Course - 2 Days 2017

18th November & 2nd December 2017

This course is designed for dentists who would like to develop their endodontic skills to provide high quality predictable endodontics. There are numerous practical sessions including access cavities, shaping, obturation and re-treatment.

Course Overview

Introduction: Contemporary Endodontics in General Practice

- Examination & diagnosis
 - A review of the common signs & symptoms of endodontic problems
 - Differential diagnosis in endodontics
 - Pulp testing – what does it mean
 - Radiographics & endodontics
 - Introduction to CBCT
- Treatment planning
- Introduction to magnification
 - Loupes, lights & microscopes
- Access cavity design in extracted teeth
- Irrigation protocols, materials & techniques
- Shaping root canals
 - An overview of hand & rotary shaping
 - A review of current rotary & reciprocation techniques
 - Hands on experience with rotary files – extracted teeth
- Obturation
 - A review of current methods
 - Canal medicaments, what to use and why
- Re-treatment
 - Assessing success & failure
 - Re-treatment techniques
 - Hands on experience
- Restoration of root filled teeth